

METROL MEDIA

Terms & Conditions of Employment

1. Employment Overview

Role, department, start date, location and employment type are as recorded on the employee's application form and appointment record.

2. Work Hours & Attendance Policy

2.1 Regular Working Hours (Flexible Timing)

The company follows a flexible timing policy between 10:00 AM to 10:30 AM. Employees may report to work anytime within this window; however, they must complete their 9-hour working shift, which includes a 1-hour lunch break. The standard working schedule remains 6 days a week.

2.2 Attendance Expectations

Employees are expected to report to work on time and maintain consistent attendance. Repeated tardiness or absenteeism without valid reasons may lead to disciplinary action.

2.3 Late Arrival

- Arrival after 10:30 AM will be considered as "Late."
- Employees are allowed 4 late arrivals per month (with prior intimation).
- The 5th instance of being late will be considered a Half Day.
- Chronic tardiness may result in disciplinary or corrective action.

2.4 Absenteeism

- All absences must be communicated in advance unless it is an emergency.
- If you miss work without prior notice, a written explanation is required upon return.
- Same-Day Leave Rule: If you inform about your leave on the same day, it will not be treated as a paid leave, even if you have leave balance available.
- Same-day leaves will be considered unpaid, unless there is a genuine emergency approved by HR.

3. Paid Leave & Salary Adjustment Policy

3.1 Paid Leave Entitlement

The company provides 2 paid leaves per month to every employee.

3.2 Leave Beyond Entitlement

If an employee takes more than 2 leaves in a month, the additional leaves will be considered unpaid, and salary deduction will be applied for each extra leave day.

3.3 Leave Without Prior Approval

Any leave taken without prior approval or without valid emergency communication may lead to double-day salary deduction and disciplinary review.

3.4 Unused Paid Leave Payout

If an employee does not utilize their 2 paid leaves in a month, the company will provide a paid leave payout, meaning the employee will receive the equivalent salary for the unused paid leave days in that month.

3.5 Carry Forward Clause

If you do not utilize your paid leaves, they will be carried forward and can be used later. Employees who opt for the Leave Carry Forward option may utilize only the leaves actually available in their leave balance at the time of application.

For example, if an employee does not utilize the 2 paid leaves of January and they are carried forward, then by February the employee will have a total balance of 4 paid leaves, and can avail a maximum of 4 consecutive (wholesome) leave days only. Leave beyond the available balance will not be permitted.

3.6 Management Discretion

All leave approvals are subject to production schedules, team requirements, and management discretion.

3.7 Period Leave (For Female Employees)

- Female employees are entitled to 1 Period Leave per month.
- This leave can be availed on any one day during the menstrual cycle, based on the employee's requirement.
- The Period Leave will be fully paid and will not be adjusted against the monthly leave balance.
- Prior intimation to HR or reporting manager is expected, but same-day information will be acceptable in such cases.

3.8 Public Holidays

Employees are entitled to all public holidays recognized by the company.

3.9 Leave During Probation

Employees are not entitled to any paid leaves during the probation period.

3.10 Same-Day Leave Rule

If an employee informs about their leave on the same day, it will not be considered as paid leave, even if they have leave balance available — except in genuine emergencies or period leave cases (for female employees) approved by HR.

4. Annual Performance Review

4.1 Review Period

Salary increments are considered during the annual performance review cycle, which occurs yearly from the employee's joining date.

4.2 Performance Evaluation

Increment is based on performance, achievements, teamwork, and feedback from supervisors.

4.3 Increment Criteria

- Meeting/exceeding job responsibilities.
- Positive feedback from management.
- Growth in skills and contribution to company goals.

4.4 No Automatic Increments

Increments are not automatic; they depend entirely on performance evaluation.

4.5 Impact of Leave & Absence

Excessive unapproved leaves or absenteeism may impact increment eligibility.

5. Amendment of Policy

The company reserves the right to amend, modify, or update these policies at any time. Employees will be notified of such changes formally.

6. Workplace Conduct & Code of Ethics

- Employees must maintain professionalism, respect, and ethical behaviour.
- The company maintains a zero-tolerance policy for discrimination or harassment of any kind.

7. Termination & Notice Period

- Probation Period: First 3 months are probationary. During this period, either party may terminate employment with 15 days' notice.
- Post-Probation: Employees must provide 45 days' written notice before resignation.
- Full & Final Settlement: Will be processed within 30–60 days after relieving. No benefits will be applicable during the notice period.
- Termination by Employer: The company may terminate employment for misconduct, underperformance, or violation of company policies.
- Exit Procedure: Employees must return all company property and complete the handover process.

8. Dispute Resolution

Employees should first try to resolve concerns with their supervisor. If unresolved, the matter may be escalated to HR.

9. Miscellaneous Provisions

- Employees must take care of company property (laptop, camera, phone, etc.) and return all items during exit.
- The company reserves the right to amend terms and conditions with prior notice.

10. Employee Resignation

- If any employee resigns and does not serve the required notice period, they will be considered as early exit.
- In case of early exit, the employee will not be eligible for payout of the last 45 days, regardless of salary or incentive accumulation.
- Employees exiting without completing the notice period will not receive Exit Clearance Documents, which includes: Experience Letter, Relieving Letter, Full & Final Settlement, and any Pending Dues (including salary/incentive of last 45 days).

Only after completion of the notice period and successful handover, exit documents will be released.

11. Confidentiality & Non-Disclosure

Employees must protect confidential company information and may not share, disclose, or misuse it during or after employment.

12. Non-Compete & Non-Solicitation

- Employees shall not engage in or support any competing business during or after employment for the defined period.
- Employees must not solicit company employees, clients, or vendors for personal or competing purposes.

By submitting the joining application on company.metrol.in, the applicant confirms that they have read, understood and accepted these Terms & Conditions of Employment.